For anyone stuck for ideas of what to do with the kids this summer, look no further than the fantastic family fun that is planned at the Crowne Plaza in Marlow.

From BBQ Fridays, with FREE bouncy castles, to family fun weekends with games on the lawn, a new Wii Room, Movie Club and the launch of the new Crowne Club for Kids, the Crowne Plaza Marlow is building on its reputation as one of the most family friendly hotels in the area.

The 4 star hotel, set in the heart of Buckinghamshire, is a stunning weekend destination, or a lovely place to spend a lazy afternoon – with something to do for everyone.

Kerri Cicirello, Marketing Co-ordinator for Crowne Plaza Marlow, said: "We're really keen for locals – and not so locals – to come along and enjoy the fantastic facilities we have at the hotel for families. The grounds are set in 5 acres of land, overlooking a lake, we have a swimming pool, lawns for cricket, football, etc – and, what's more, the staff are extremely welcoming. You won't find us 'tutting' over a spilt glass of lemonade."

"Weekends are for the whole family and means they can spend some quality time together in a child friendly, relaxing environment. Whilst the kids are being entertained, the adults can sit back and relax, with a celebration of local beers and a selection of wines in aqua bar”.

She added, “This is the start of a summer of fun at the hotel. We have teamed up with LEGOLAND® Windsor to offer great weekend packages, there's also our fab family fun weekends and the ever popular School's Out Disco on 22nd July, for under 12s, where children – and parents – can really let their hair down, with a disco, children's entertainer, bouncy castle and buffet. Tickets £9”.
